Wednesday Worship: Curiosity

Gathering

*Open my eyes that I may see glimpses of truth thou hast for me.
Place in my hands the wonderful key that shall unclasp and set me free.*

*Open the eyes of my heart, Lord
Open the eyes of my heart,
I want to see you
I want to see you*

*Silently now I wait for thee,
ready, my God, thy will to see.*

with song "Purveyors of Awe"

*Silently now I wait for thee,
ready, my God, thy will to see.
Open my eyes, illumine me,
Spirit divine!*

*Open the eyes of my heart, Lord
Open the eyes of my heart,
I want to see you
I want to see you*

*Open my eyes, illumine me,
Spirit divine!*

Contemporary Reading—Our first reading is a contemporary one—an excerpt from Scott Shigeoka. Scott is a curiosity expert and has done research on curiosity at the University of California, Berkeley in their Greater Good Science Center. He's traveled the country, building relationships across differences. He's also the author of Seek: How Curiosity Can Transform Your Life and Change the World: "We need to embrace what I call 'deep curiosity.' This is the kind of curiosity that invites us to use it as a force for meaningful connection and transformation. This is what strengthens our relationships to ourselves and each other."

We Hear God's Word

Proverbs 2:2-5

Incline your ear to Wisdom,
and take her truth into your heart.
For if you yearn for insight and cry out for understanding,
if you search for it as you would for silver,
and dig for it as you would for buried treasure,
you will understand what [awe] of YHWH is,
and discover how to truly know God.

Luke 15:1-3

¹Now all the tax-collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him. ²And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, “This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them.” ³So he told them this parable:

Prayer: Approaching an Awesome God—Holy and Living God, we approach this time of prayer with curiosity about your world. With all our senses, we open to you.

Give us lenses of awe with which to perceive and love others as you perceive and love us. We imagine in our mind’s eye now the people in our lives, the people of our communities, and the people of our world. Each of them is beloved by you, and this alone creates awe in us. We especially lift up those who need our prayers in this moment...[Name those who are on your heart in these moments].

For all these people and all your beloved,
Hear our prayer, Awesome God.

Give us lenses of awe with which to perceive and love your creation as you perceive and love it. Each strange and new species, each surprising wild flower, each ant carrying a load ten times its weight reminds us that our curiosity is fed in so many ways. You are making all things new all around us. Help us to care for the nature around us...[Name the parts of creation on your heart in these moments].

For all these places, creatures, and lifeforms, and those we name in our hearts,
Hear our prayer, Awesome God.

Give us lenses of awe with which to perceive and love life as you perceive and love the life you have given us. Open us to greet each new day as if there is something new to learn and experience so that we might stay curious and love discovery along this journey. Slow us down in this season of Lent so that we might savor anew the gift of life. We pause in this silence, setting intentions of awe for the week ahead. [Name your intentions for your spiritual practice this week.]

For all these intentions,
Hear our prayer, Awesome God.

The Lord’s Prayer (unison)—Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Sung Prayer Response

*You are a great and awesome God,
your wonders we proclaim.*

You are our Rock, our Strength, our Shield, from age to age the same.

*You forgive us all our sins,
you transform us with your love.*

*In joyful, grateful, hearts we sing
you are a great and awesome God.*

Visio Divina—For online worship, we’ll be engaging in the spiritual practice of Visio Divina. "Visio Divina is translated as ‘divine seeing’ and is related to Lectio Divina ‘divine reading’. While Lectio Divina is a form of prayer focused on scripture, Visio Divina focuses on images.”¹ If you worship at home with our mailing, find an image you have at home (a work of art, a photograph, an image in a book or on your phone) to contemplate. See what the Spirit reveals through it.

"The human gaze is not the closed, fixed view of a camera but is creative and constructive...So much depends then on how we see things...Each of us is responsible for how we see, and how we see determines what we see. Seeing is not merely a physical act: the heart of vision is shaped by the state of soul." -- from John O'Donohue's Beauty, 2004.

Hymn

Called as Partners in Christ’s Service, 581

Benediction—Be a “purveyor of awe,” curating a life of spiritual depth that inspires others to join you on the journey. May the Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer of Awe, the Holy One-in-Three, be with you now and throughout these days, Amen.
